General Comment

I have been studying options trading for a few years and am now quite comfortable with them. It appears some bozo on capital hill now wants to restrict options so they are not used in retirement accounts. That's a terrible restriction !!

Why would you restrict me from using MY money in such a fashion?

I would hope that the reaction against this rule is massive and that you in fact discard it as a terrible waste of taxpayers time to draw up such a rule.

Regards...
